

BUSINESS REFERENCE LETTER

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to provide this reference letter for Safeness in relation to their participation in tenders requiring skilled manpower for drilling operations.

Based on our professional interactions, Safeness has demonstrated reliability and professionalism in providing qualified personnel for technical and operational activities. Their team has shown a good level of competence, responsiveness, and commitment to meeting project requirements, particularly in demanding operational environments.

We consider Safeness a capable partner for the supply of skilled manpower in drilling and related activities, and we wish them success in their participation in the upcoming in technical and commercial proposals.

Sincerely,

Simone Ragaglia
